

NORTH WEST SCHOOL OF DESIGN

TAILORING 2022

DESCRIPTION

Tailoring is a specialised course presented by NWSD. This course is for the advanced seamstress, as it involves very intricate sewing techniques. NWSD will teach students the finer details of tailoring, as men's jacket will be made by students.

- NWSD recommends that the Tailoring course is not for beginners, and students who enroll for this course, must have completed the Part Time Sewing course of North West School of Design.

WHEN?

Date to be advised.

Should classes fall on a public holiday, the lecturer will inform students accordingly of changes in their class schedule.

Term breaks will also be discussed, as there will be no classes during school term breaks.

Short Courses

Here at North West School of Design, our short courses are a combination of evening classes and Saturday workshops ranging from one -day workshops to two month part-time courses.

In the efforts to make our short course more affordable, the NWSD short courses are offered as non-credit bearing courses, as these courses are not unit standard based. Student therefore receive a non-credit bearing certificate after completing the short course.

What Does It Mean If My Course Is Non-Accredited?

Are you interested in studying a non-accredited course, but not sure whether it is worth the time and money? Many people are still under the impression that a non-accredited course has no value. This is not true. Non-accredited courses are great for learning a new skillset or building on your existing proficiencies. What's more, they are shorter in duration, which means that you can gain a new skill set in as little as six months.

What you need to know about non-accredited courses

- A non-accredited course has no connection to an external accreditation or professional body.
- Non-accredited courses focus on equipping the student with a specific knowledge and skillset.
- You can study a non-accredited course to help you in your current and future career, or for hobbyist purposes.
- Even though it carries no professional recognition, you can still list it on your CV.
- Non-accredited courses are often shorter in duration.
- Non-accredited courses are not as expensive as professional study programmes.
- Non-accredited courses are more affordable than accredited study programmes.

The advantages of studying a non-accredited course.

- The study material and assignments are not as complicated. Also, there are no exams.
- Non-accredited courses are often shorter in duration, which means that you can gain a new skillset in a short period of time.
- A non-accredited course can help you refine your skills.
- Non-accredited courses are still valuable in the job market.
- You can build on your knowledge and skill.
- The entrance requirements for non-accredited courses are not as strict as those for accredited courses.
