NORTH WEST
SCHOOL OF DESIGN

WELCOME TO NWSD

North West School of Design (NWSD), founded by awarding winning and highly recognized Fashion Entrepreneur Marlene Oosthuizen, has recently celebrated 27 years of training International and South Africa's top designers and fashion professionals.

NWSD is Accredited by the British Accreditation Council (BAC) as an International Centre.

This achievement was awarded after the school underwent a rigorous evaluation process as well as an inspection by the BAC Inspectors from the UK.

This International Accreditation is just one step in ensuring that the school's approach to teaching and learning is recognised and quality assured providing our students with a better platform to launch their careers in the fashion industry.

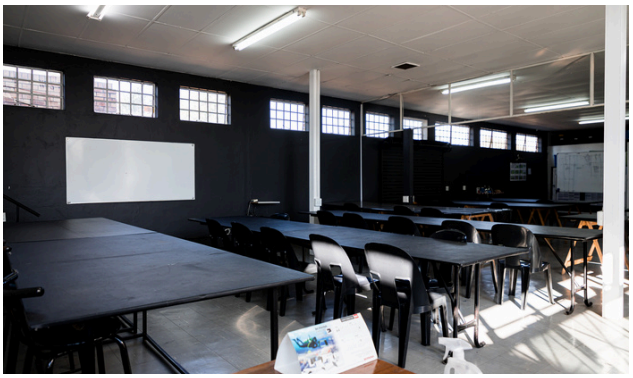

The British Accreditation Council (BAC) provides a comprehensive quality assurance scheme for independent further and higher education in the UK. BAC accreditation is recognised the world over by students, agents, and government officials as the clearest mark of educational quality in the private sector.

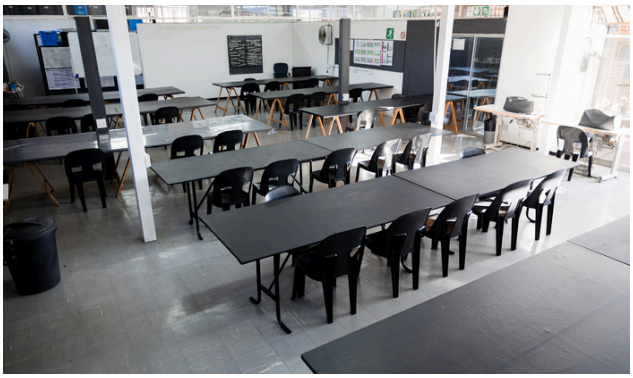

The BAC is a member organisation of the European Association for Quality Assurance (ENQA) in Higher Education. The North West School of Design is situated in the 'City of the People' - Klerksdorp, North West. Together with Rustenburg, Klerksdorp forms the economic heart of the Platinum Province, North West Province.

OUR CAMPUS

The North West School of Design is a prestigious institution, boasting a vibrant campus café and a state-of-the-art clinic managed by a professional nurse. Recently transformed and expanded, the school now offers even more space and a dynamic workforce.

Nestled in Klerksdorp North West, in the charming Leinr Bk building, owned by the visionary Principal, Ms. Marlene Oosthuizen, the campus provides secure parking and exceptional working spaces. Additionally, students can enjoy a trendy thrift store, a cozy reading room, and with a fully equipped photo studio in the pipeline, making it a hub of creativity and innovation.

COURSE INFO

The part-time pattern design course at North West School of Design is meticulously crafted to equip students with the essential skills and knowledge required for pattern drafting. Utilizing the award-winning X!Act Design Patternmaker™ instrument, this course offers a blend of theoretical and practical training, making it ideal for aspiring fashion designers and enthusiasts.

Introduction to Pattern Drafting:
Students will be introduced to the fundamentals of pattern drafting, including understanding measurements, pattern symbols, and the use of the X!Act DesignPatternmaker™ instrument. This foundational knowledge is crucial for accurate and efficient pattern creation.

Drafting Block Patterns:
The core of the course involves drafting block patterns for women, men, and children. These blocks serve as the basic templates for various garment types. Each block pattern will be meticulously crafted to ensure precision and fit.

Adapting Blocks into Style Patterns:
Once the block patterns are mastered, students will learn to adapt these blocks into style patterns. This involves modifying the basic blocks to create unique designs and styles. Students will explore techniques such as adding darts, pleats, and other design elements to transform basic blocks into fashionable garments. Students will learn to draft patterns for blouses, dresses, skirts, sleeves, trousers, and collars.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

As this is a non-credit bearing course, there are no strict requirements to study Part-Time Pattern Design. What Does It Mean If My Course Is Non-Accredited?
Are you interested in studying a non-accredited course, but not sure whether it is worth the time and money? Many people are still under the impression that a non-accredited course has no value. This is not true. Non-accredited courses are great for learning a new skillset or building on your existing proficiencies. What's more, they are shorter in duration, which means that you can gain a new skill set in as little as six months.

What you need to know about non-accredited courses:
- A non-accredited course has no connection to an external accreditation or professional body.
- Non-accredited courses focus on equipping the student with a specific knowledge and skillset.
- You can study a non-accredited course to help you in your current and future career, or for hobbyist purposes.
- Even though it carries no professional recognition, you can still list it on your CV.
- Non-accredited courses are often shorter in duration.
- Non-accredited courses are not as expensive as professional study programmes.
- Non-accredited courses are more affordable than accredited study programmes.

The advantages of studying a non-accredited course:
- The study material and assignments are not as complicated. Also, there are no exams.
- Non-accredited courses are often shorter in duration, which means that you can gain a new skillset in a short period of time.
- A non-accredited course can help you refine your skills.
- Non-accredited courses are still valuable in the job market.
- You can build on your knowledge and skill.
- The entrance requirements for non-accredited courses are not as strict as those for accredited courses.
